1. European Public Health Conference

Health in Europe: are we there yet?
Learning from the past, building the future

The 2013 conference is going to be THE meeting place for all public health professionals in Europe. We are working together with ASPHER, EPHA, EHMA, EuroHealthNet, European Commission, ECDC, WHO Regional office for Europe, European observatory for health systems and policies and the Belgian Association for Public Health. Please check the website for the latest news: www.eupha.org/Brussels2013.

Don’t forget to submit your abstract or workshop on time: The deadline is 1 May 2013 (midnight CET).

If you are interested in organizing a workshop or participating in one, please feel free to contact office@eupha.org.

2. EUPHA update

Latest news - EUPHA
EUPHA has been quite active this month including:
- Publishing an official reaction to the amendments of the EU Data Protection Regulation (www.eupha.org/repository/EUPHA_DPD_response_21_Febr.pdf)
- Signing up for the initiative to make available all data from clinical trials (http://www.alltrials.net/supporters/).
- Updating the EUPHA structure on the website at: www.eupha.org/site/structure.php

EUPHApedia – Building knowledge and capacity together

At the end of February 2013, we have 2860 documents included in EUPHApedia. All persons in our database have access to search EUPHApedia, all EUPHA members can upload information on to EUPHApedia.

EUPHA sections

The EUPHA section on Migrant and Ethnic Minority Health is co-organising the 5th European conference on migrant and ethnic minority health from 10 to 12 April 2014 in Granada, Spain. The main theme is: Migrants’ health and access to healthcare in the context of the current systemic crisis in Europe. For more information: www.easp.es
3. Call for proposals, job opportunities

Research Associate in Statistics and Epidemiology - Warwick Medical School

You will join Warwick Medical School, Division of Health Sciences to support the expanding work programme of Warwick Evidence, one of nine health technology appraisal and evidence synthesis teams in the UK. You will provide statistical and epidemiological research support to health technology appraisal reviews.

You will work with a multidisciplinary team of information specialists, modellers and systematic reviewers in appraising evidence on the clinical and cost-effectiveness of health technologies. You will contribute to methodological research in epidemiology and medical statistics and progress the development of the field through evidence synthesis and research. There will be opportunities for assisting in teaching activities.

You will have a good first degree. You will also be completing or have completed a postgraduate qualification in medical statistics and/or epidemiology and have some awareness or experience of systematic reviewing and health technology assessment. You will enjoy working in a friendly team to tight deadlines.

4. Interesting News

Council on Health Research for Development

2013 marks the 20th Anniversary of COHRED. Have you worked in partnership with COHRED over the 20 past years? We would love to hear about these experiences - from your perspective, in your voice. To highlight COHRED's impact on the way research and innovation can positively contribute to health, equity and development, we are collecting narratives (stories of change, case studies, anecdotes, testimonies) and even photos or videos from our partners. Whatever your current or past connection to COHRED is, we would like to hear from you. Should you prefer to be personally interviewed, or if you have any questions about this process, feel free to contact us at: cohred20@cohred.org.

WFPHA

January issue of the WFPHA newsletter is now available. To read the newsletter, click here.

Winner of “Health and Environment Film Prize” announced

“Unacceptable levels” by Ed Brown, (USA) became the winner of the first-ever film prize on health and environment at the 30th International Environmental Film Festival (FIFE). The prize was established by a partnership between FIFE, the festival organisers and the Health and Environment Alliance (HEAL).

The film addresses the theme of the chemicals that are invading our environment. The director invites his audience to put practical questions to themselves about these substances, which are potentially harmful to health – and are found in our water, food, cosmetics, toys and paints. He tries to offer the audience answers by questioning scientists and representatives of non-governmental organisations (NGOs). This leads to the conclusion that governments are not necessarily doing all they should to protect the public. Ultimately, the film encourages everyone to look more deeply into these questions for ourselves. http://www.env-health.org/

5. EUPHA member updates

6. Upcoming courses and conferences

Going International promotes training and further education for experts and newcomers in public health and humanitarian assistance around the globe. The flagship of Going International is the online education database »medicine & health«. It contains international courses, master programmes and conferences in the field of medicine and international health. Due to the large number and variety of training events the education database enables health professionals to find their educational event at their fingertips. For further information: www.goinginternational.eu/en/online-datenbank/ Going International is an official partner of EUPHA.

IMAI District Clinician Manual: Hospital Care for Adolescents and Adults. Package Vol 1 & 2
This manual is written for clinicians working at the district hospital (first-level referral care) who diagnose and manage sick adolescents and adults in resource-constrained settings. It aims to support clinical reasoning, and to provide an effective clinical approach and protocols for the management of common and serious or potentially life-threatening conditions at the district hospital.

WHO Expert Committee on Drug Dependence
This report presents the recommendations of a WHO Expert Committee responsible for reviewing information on psychoactive substances to assess the need for their international control.

Improving Public Health through Mycotoxin Control
This book aims to sensitize the international community to the mycotoxin problem in a format that is accessible to a wide audience and is useful to decision-makers across a broad spectrum of disciplines, including agriculture, public health, marketing, and economics.

WHO Classification of Tumours of Soft Tissue and Bone. Fourth edition
This authoritative, concise reference book provides an international standard for oncologists and pathologists and will serve as an indispensable guide for use in the design of studies monitoring response to therapy and clinical outcome.

Guidance on Water Supply and Sanitation in Extreme Weather Events
This publication describes how adaptation policies should consider the new risks from extreme weather events, how vulnerabilities can be identified and which management procedures can be applied to ensure sustained protection of health.

United Kingdom (Scotland)
United Kingdom (Northern Ireland)
United Kingdom (Wales)
HiTs seek to provide relevant information to support policy-makers and analysts in the development of health systems in Europe.

As the flagship periodical of WHO, the Bulletin is a leading international voice on public health issues. This peer-reviewed monthly draws on the expertise within WHO to provide a vital resource for those interested in research, policy issues and debate on international public health, particularly the problems confronting developing countries.

Promoting Access to Medical Technologies and Innovation

This study seeks to reinforce the understanding of the interplay between the distinct policy domains of health, trade and intellectual property, and of how they affect medical innovation and access to medical technologies.

Atlas of Health and Climate

The Atlas of health and climate is a product of a unique collaboration between the meteorological and public health communities. It provides sound scientific information on the connections between weather and climate and major health challenges.

Home Care across Europe

Home care in Europe probes a wide range of topics including the links between social services and health-care systems, the prevailing funding mechanisms, how service providers are paid, the impact of governmental regulation, and the complex roles played by informal caregivers.

Private Medical Insurance in the United Kingdom

The United Kingdom's health care system continues to be categorized in terms of public finance and public provision. However, over 11% of the United Kingdom population has private medical insurance. This study provides an introductory overview of an often-ignored and significantly under-researched area.

Research Priorities for Chagas Disease, Human African Trypanosomiasis and Leishmaniasis

This report identifies key research priorities through systematic review of research evidence and input from stakeholders on these three distinct insect-borne diseases.

As the flagship periodical of WHO, the Bulletin is a leading international voice on public health issues. This peer-reviewed monthly draws on the expertise within WHO to provide a vital resource for those interested in research, policy issues and debate on international public health, particularly the problems confronting developing countries.

WHO Drug Information, Vol. 26, No. 4, 2012

WHO Drug Information communicates pharmaceutical information that is either developed and issued by WHO or transmitted to WHO by research and regulatory agencies throughout the World. The journal also includes regular presentations of newly proposed and recommended International Nonproprietary Names (INN) for Pharmaceuticals Substances. This volume contains the proposed INN List no. 108.
S'appuyer sur l'infrastructure scolaire pour administrer des médicaments vermifuges est l'une des façons les plus simples de traiter un grand nombre d'enfants d'âge scolaire et les programmes de lutte en milieu scolaire sont devenus l'une des pierres angulaires de la lutte contre les maladies tropicales négligées.

Nos réalisations
Dans son premier rapport en tant que directrice régionale de l'OMS pour l'Europe, Zsuzsanna Jakab évoque les progrès réalisés en 2010-2011 en coordonnant les efforts du Bureau régional de l'OMS pour l'Europe et de ses 53 États membres.
