

Public health ethics, law and human rights for the future of humanity

#PHethicsseries

INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR SERIES

Session #1: “Justice, solidarity and public’s health”

Date: Wednesday 23rd September 2020, 2:00-3:30 pm BST (London) – check your timezone

Keynote presentations

- Professor Larry Gostin, Director of O’Neill Institute for National & Global Health Law at Georgetown University and WHO Collaborating Center on Public Health Law & Human Rights
- Professor Sir Michael Marmot, Professor of Epidemiology at University College London (UCL), Director of the UCL Institute of Health Equity, and Past President of the World Medical Association

Speakers

- Professor Thérèse Murphy, Director of the Health & Human Rights Unit and Professor of Law at Queen’s University, Belfast and Co-Founder of Human Rights Preparedness, an initiative of the Global Campus of Human Rights
- Dr Maja Groff, International Lawyer, Visiting Professor on global challenges, Leiden University College, The Hague, Faculty of Global Governance and Global Affairs (FGGA)
- Dr Sridhar Venkatapuram, Associate Professor of Global Health and Philosophy, Kings College, London

Chair

- Dr Farhang Tahzib, Public Health Physician and Chair of the Ethics Committee, UK Faculty of Public Health

FACULTY OF
PUBLIC HEALTH

ABOUT THE SERIES

The UK Faculty of Public Health, in collaboration with the 'Ethics in Public Health' Section and the 'Public Health Law' Initiative of the European Public Health Association (EUPHA) and partners are hosting a series of international online sessions on the ethical, legal & human rights dimensions of public health in the context of the 2020 World Congress on Public Health. The aim is to:

- draw together the emerging thinking, work and materials on the ethics, law and human rights aspects of public health
- consider implications for policy, advocacy and practice
- strengthen the collaboration of public health professionals, scholars and policy makers
- improve and protect the public's health and wellbeing.

The first online session will be dedicated to Justice, solidarity and public's health with presentations by distinguished scholars, policy makers and practitioners and discussion on the issue and its implications for policy and practice.

FREE REGISTRATION:

https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_sLGBI6IFQBKzZCF_8SkwIw

QUESTIONS: Please contact UKpublichealth.ethics@gmail.com. Ideas, views and suggestions to advance the scholarship, discourse and policy and practice on the issue are also welcome.

This activity received co-funding under an operating grant from the European Union's Health Programme (2014-2020).