PLENARY: BUILDING BRIDGES BETWEEN DIFFERENT PROFESSIONS AND COMMUNITIES

Thursday 21 November, 13:40 – 14:40

This session focusses on building bridges across professions to transform public health action in achieving the Sustainable Development Goals. It stimulates the debate on inter-professional collaboration, providing some inspirational stories theory and practice. A key note will be provided on awareness-based social transformation and its application to accelerate public health action through meaningful engagement across society. This will set the scene for three reflections from daily practice: public health action; dental health and healthy cities. Speakers/Panellists include:

- Miklós Szócska, Director Health Services Management Training Center, Semmelweis University, Budapest, Hungary

- Paula Vassalo, (incoming) President European Dental Public Health Association (EADPH)
- Ricardo Baptista Leite, Member of Parliament and Deputy Mayor and City Councillor of Cascais, Portugal

This plenary is organised by the WHO Regional Office for Europe and EUPHA, and moderated by Anna Cichowska Myrup (WHO EURO) and Natasha Azzopardi Muscat, President EUPHA.
