Bienvenue à Marseille

- Marseille, the second largest city in France, is a dynamic and bustling city with more than 2500 years of history
- Recently, the city has undergone a facelift and sparkles with new museums and cultural centres
- Visit the vibrant Vieux Port (old port) and the trendy Le Panier district
- Explore the République district: stylish boutiques and buildings
- Discover the Joliette area with the famous striped Cathédrale de la Major

Co-organised by

Building bridges for solidarity and public health

The annual EPH conferences are considered the premier European gatherings of public health professionals. Delegates include researchers, policymakers, practitioners and educators in public health and many other related fields.

SHARING KNOWLEDGE

The 12th EPH Conference offers excellent opportunities to learn from the latest research and practice, to network with experts and colleagues and to expand your professional horizons. Abstracts will be invited for workshops and single presentations on all areas of public health research, practice and policy as from 1 February 2019.

Main theme of the conference is Building bridges for solidarity and public health.

SUB THEMES:

- Building bridges for the increasing problem of migration
- Solidarity for public health – health in all policies
- Changing populations and the need for a diversified approach to public health
- Building global bridges – the interrelation between European public health and global public health
- New roles for public health practice

NETWORKING

The conference offers excellent opportunities for professional networking and for making and renewing friendships. The social programme includes a welcome reception and a conference dinner.
