

PRE-CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Public health: how to deal with climate change?

November 20th, 2019
Parc Chanot, Marseille

French to English and English to French translations will be available

- 8:45 – 9:15      Public welcoming and coffee
- 9:15 – 9:30      Opening
Région SUD Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur, Agence Régionale de Santé (ARS), Direction Régionale de l'Environnement, de l'Aménagement et du logement
(DREAL)
- 9:30 – 10:00      Introduction « Climate change and health impacts »
Overview of climate change's global issues, and current knowledge on climate change consequences on public health.
- 10:00 – 10:30      First talk « Health impact of urban heatwaves »
Heatwave's health impacts are going to increase mainly in urban areas: links and effects

10:30 - 11:00 / coffee break

- 11:00 - 11:30      Second talk « Air quality and climate change: which relationships? » Relationships between those two processes and consequences on public health. Which public policies will imply co-benefits?
- 11:30 - 12:00      Third talk « Vector-borne diseases and climate change »
How is/will climate change impact(ed) the development of vector-borne diseases?

12:30 - 14:00 / Lunch break

14:00 - 15:15

First round table

« Health and climate change into urban planning »

Which integration of health threats in public policies, new initiatives of urban planning and public health?

---

15:15 - 15:45 / break

---

15:45 - 17:00

Second round table

« Climate change: an opportunity to promote transversality in public health policies: which benefits and how to encourage them? »

Towards transectorial work between public health and environmental policies. Health inequalities.

Produced by:

AIR Climat/GREC-SUD

Scientific committee:

*Denis ZMIROU-NAVIER (HSCP)
Wolfgang Cramer (IPCC, MedECC)
Anne Roue-Le Gall (EHESP)
Virginie Migeot (Inserm)*