

Marseille welcomes you to the 16th pre-conference of the EUPHA Section on Social Security, Work & Health

Forced migration in Europe – aspects of work, social security and health

Venue Palais des Congrès et des Expositions, Marseille, France

Time Wednesday November 20, 2019

- 9.00-9.15 Welcome and some information
Gunnel Hensing, President of the SSWH section
Welcome and introduction.
Ellenor Mittendorfer-Rutz, Professor, Karolinska Institutet
- 9.15-10.00 Health and integration of migrants
Allan Krasnik, Professor, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
- 10.00-10.30 Coffee/tea break with group discussions
- 10.30-11.15 Social benefits and employment among refugees in Finland – the role of laws and policies
Maili Malin, Senior Researcher, Migration Institute of Finland, Finland
- 11.15-12.30 Trouble-shooting seminar: Group work and discussions
Nadav Davidovitch, Professor, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Israel
- 12.30-13.30 Lunch
- 13.30-14.15 Migrants access to health services, Mipex Health strand
David Ingleby, Professor, University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands
- 14.15-15.00 Selection of migrants into fields of low paid and/or precarious jobs
Nadav Davidovitch, Professor, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Israel
- 15.00-15.30 Coffee/tea break with group discussions
- 15.30-16.15 Trouble-shooting seminar: Group work and group discussion
- 16.15-16.45 Sickness absence and disability pension in migrants
Ellenor Mittendorfer-Rutz, Professor, Karolinska Institutet, Sweden
- 16.45-17.00 Summing up of the day: What did we learn? Ellenor Mittendorfer-Rutz
- 17.00 End of afternoon program
- 18.00 Joint pre-conference dinner and continued discussions

Lunch, tea and coffee are included in the registration fee. Please note that the registration fee does not include the pre-conference dinner.

www.eupha.org