

14TH EUROPEAN PUBLIC HEALTH CONFERENCE
10 – 12 NOVEMBER 2021
VIRTUAL EDITION

PUBLIC HEALTH FUTURES IN A CHANGING WORLD

PLENARY: CLIMATE CHANGE, JUSTICE AND PUBLIC HEALTH

In this plenary we explore the interlinkages between our environment, justice and health through the lenses of different stakeholders: public health professionals, climate and justice activists, and policymakers. The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed structural gaps in our economies and social structures, as well as the need to ‘build back better’. Public health has an important role to play in promoting health in our rapidly changing world. This is particularly crucial to ensure that we achieve a net zero carbon society while simultaneously addressing the social crisis we are facing and promoting greater health and wellbeing for all: achieving a green, healthy and just transition, leaving no one behind regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, and income and education levels. Theme and invited speakers guarantee an inspiring session that you do not want to miss. Date: Friday 12 November: 16:20 – 17:20 CET. Organized by EuroHealthNet.

PLENARY PROGRAMME

In the other plenary sessions we examine other pressing challenges affecting the future of our discipline:

- Public health practice, training and workforces for the future
- Learning from the pandemic, and getting ready for the next one
- Digital health – person centred?
- Communications and public health
