

Health in Europe - from global to local policies,

methods and practices

Milan, Italy

14 - 17 October 2015

Can we feed Europe sustainably and equitably?

Preconference

Wednesday 14 October 2015, 12.30 - 17.00, MiCo Milano Congressi

WELCOME

- Networking lunch (Prof. Dr. Chris Birt, president of EUPHA Section on Food and Nutrition)
- Opening of the preconference (Prof. Dr. Enni Mertanen and Prof. Dr. Carl Lachat)

PART 1: Food availability and sustainability

- Is Europe eating in a healthy and environmentally conscious manner? (Dr. Alberto Donzelli)
- Public procurement as a driver for sustainable food systems: an analysis of the Danish case. (Prof. Dr. Bent Egberg Mikkelsen)
- Towards healthy and sustainable eating at workplaces (Dr. Susanna Raulio)
- Discussion

COFFEE BREAK (15.00-15.30)

PART 2: Food waste and waste management

- Combining health promotion/health protection with environmental issues: sustainability as a part of national dietary guidelines (Dr. Sirpa Sarlio-Lähteenkorva)
- Promoting water consumption while caring for the environment: use of sustainable bottles to promote drinking tap water in Switzerland (Prof. Dr. L. Suzanne Suggs)
- FareShare: How to fight hunger, improve quality of diet and tackle food waste all in one (Mr. Lindsay Boswell)
- Discussion

CLOSING REMARKS: summary and discussion (Prof. Dr. Tim Lang)

Conference fee (which includes lunch and coffee/tea): EUR 60

Organized by EUPHA Section on Food and Nutrition, with patronage of:

UNIVERSITIES
FOR EXPO 2015
SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE
CITY OF MILAN

Regione Lombardia

Allineare Sanità & Salute
Fondazione

